

W. H. Kilpatrick Opens Ed. Conference Jan. 12.

Dr. William Heard Kilpatrick, emeritus professor of educational philosophy at Teachers College, Columbia University, will conduct a series of conferences here during the Educational Study conference to be held January 12-13.

Sponsored by the Progressive Education Association and GSCW the Conference will center around the theme Planning the School Program to Meet the Needs of Children and Youth.

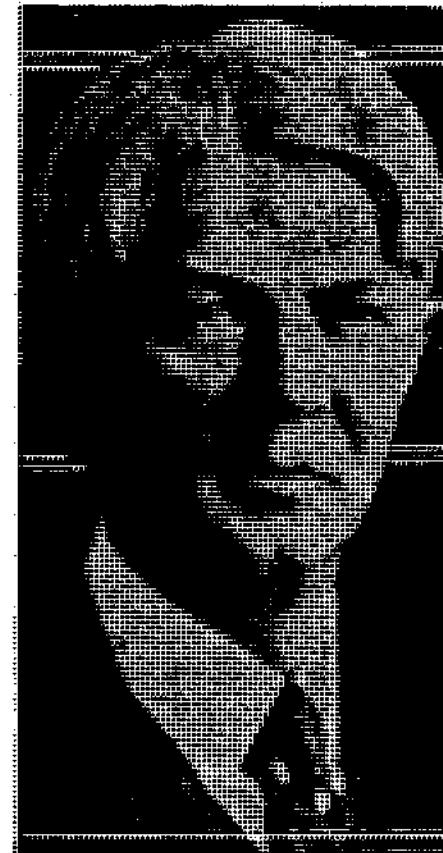

Sunday night, the W. H. Kilpatrick chapter of Future Teachers of America will be host at a dinner in the mansion honoring Dr. Kilpatrick. Following a musical program Kilpatrick will address the group.

"Modern Education and the Task Ahead", is the topic of Kilpatrick's address to the student body in chapel Monday, Jan. 13. At four o'clock in the afternoon, he will again speak, this time on "The Needs of Children and Youth". Miss Mildred English, principal of Peabody Laboratory school, will preside at the meeting which will be held in the new Peabody auditorium.

Concluding his series of lectures, Kilpatrick will speak Monday night in the new Peabody auditorium on "Meeting the Needs of the Whole Child".

Study group sessions on "Needs of Children and Youth" are scheduled for Monday afternoon at five o'clock. Leading the elementary groups will be Miss Mary Brooks, Dr. Cecelia Bason, Mr. W. E. Knox, Dr. Rachel Sutton, and Mrs. Johnnie Cox. High school groups will be under Dr. Mildred English, Miss Mary Lee Anderson, Dr. Harry A. Little, and Dr. Joe Jacob.

A native of White Plains, Ga., Dr. Kilpatrick attended Mercer University, where he later served as acting president. Johns Hopkins University, Columbia University and Bennington college have awarded him degrees. He served as professor of philosophy of education at Teachers College from 1918 to 1938.

DR. W. H. KILPATRICK
(GSCW Speaker)

U. of Ga. Band Leads Vespers Sunday Night

Vesper services Sunday evening at 6:45 will be presented by a deputation from the University of Georgia.

Those who heard the program given last quarter by a group from Wealey YWCA know the value and inspiration that may be derived from these visiting speakers.

After Vespers the University deputation will discuss plans with GSCW's Y Cabinet for the Leadership Retreat which will be held on this campus March 22-23 and

(Continued on page 3)

New Year Wish Is Same Old Request- Let The Mail Come Rolling In

BY WINIFRED GREENE

A box crammed with letters every day is the fondest New Year's wish of the average GSCW girl; for the brightest moments of her daily routine are spent going to the postoffice.

Friendly Mrs. Morgan, the postmistress, estimates about 2,000 letters pour into the college postoffice every day. Fully 500 of them bear an incorrect or insufficient address, as after months of writing many of the folks back home persist in omitting box numbers.

Two desires apparently nourish the student's longing for heavy correspondence. Lots of letters fight off loneliness and reassure the girls they are being missed. Also, some student regard mail as an index of popularity. Whichever the reason, most girls feed the outgoing mails regularly to keep replies coming in a steady stream.

Quality rather than quantity is the goal of a large number, however, and they concentrate on mother and dad and the sweetheart, paying only slight attention to other relatives, girl friends, the dear old lady across the street and casual boy acquaintances.

To the post office each morning rush the anxious hundreds, always hopeful and sometimes a little afraid. Many come early. Quickly ripping the ones that promise to be the most interesting, friends soon

(Continued on page 6)

The Colonnade

Volume XV. Z-122. Milledgeville, Ga., Saturday, January 11, 1941

Number 18

Sophs Jam "Swing Inn" Tonight As Auburn Band Swings Out

Y Holds Fifth I. H. R. Meet Jan. 23-26

The fifth annual institute of Human Relations, sponsored by the YWCA, will be held on the campus January 23-26.

The theme this year will be THE CHALLENGE TO AMERICAN DEMOCRACY and the Institute brings such outstanding men in their fields as Dr. Glenn Negley, of the University of Illinois; Dr. J. M. Fletcher, of New Orleans; Ralph McGill, of the Atlanta Constitution; Dr. Sancy L. Blanton, of the First Baptist Church, Wilmington, N. C.

The program is as follows:

Thursday—What Is Democracy?—Dr. Negley.

Friday—The Internal Threats To American Democracy—Dr. Fletcher.

Saturday—The External Threats To American Democracy—Ralph McGill.

Sunday—Religion in a Democracy—Dr. Blanton.

Sophomores Top Deans List

The official list has been released announcing the students making the required 98 average fall quarter for the Dean's List. Those students are: freshmen, Dilcey Arthur, Anna Virginia Austin, Vera Bennett, Janie Frances Bivins, Laura Leslie Brown, Lula Frances Carr, Evelyn Margaret Ennis.

Those sophomores are: Grace Criswell, Cora Davis, Mildred Ennis, Silvia Fort, Nancy Green, Ethel Elizabeth Hembree, Doris Patricia Holliman, Florence Hooten, Mildred Kate Johnson, Marie Kimbrough, Bernice MacArthur, Mary Alice MacMillan, Rebecca Mulligan, Mary Frances Neel, Sarah Ruth Neel, Marion Nutting, Jean Elsie Pafford, Hilda Pope, Martha Lois Roberts, Mary Emma Shultz, Ivie Lee Smith, Martha Eloise Wade.

Juniors making the average are: Marguerite Bassett, Ruth Borwning, Patty Cheney, Florrie Coffey, Blanche Layton, Ethel Lucille MacMillan, Sarah Frances Miller, Blanche Muldrow, Ellen Nelson, Luella Peacock, Elizabeth Whidden, Nina Wiley.

Seniors: Mildred Ballard, Frances Bennett, Sara Sue Bennett, Josephine Bone, Martha Curry, Hortense Dupree, Daisy Leather-

(Continued on page 6)

"Swing Inn", the most popular spot on the campus tonight, will be crowded when three hundred and fifty sophomores and their dates dance to the music of the Auburn Plainsmen. Using typical

Safety Theme Of H. J. Stack's Chapel Talk

Dr. Herbert J. Stack, director of the National Center for Safety Education at New York University spoke to the student body and faculty Friday on the problems of safety education.

Dr. Stack has been a leader in the organization and administration of city and state safety for the past twenty years. He has lectured and held conferences in more than four hundred colleges and universities and has assisted in the preparation of many courses of study and textbooks on public safety.

HERBERT J. STACK

Safety Educator

The earliest experiments by

Stack in the field of public safety were conducted during the last

World War when he was in charge of the American development of air craft parachutes for the expeditionary forces in France.

Stack's present tour will carry him through Georgia, Florida, and the Carolinas where he will speak on public safety.

The World Community Discussion group will meet Monday at 7 o'clock in the Y office. Mr. Massey will lead the discussion on "Negro Education".

Those students who have had English 308 and who wish to join the Speech Club are asked to meet the members Tuesday in Arts 25 during the Chapel hour.

(Continued on page 6)

It's Later Than You Think So Please Do Think

On February 28, officers of CGA for 1941-42 will be elected. The preliminaries necessary for this election will take place during weeks preceding the election. Though it may seem foolish to mention this event seven weeks before it occurs, we think it worthy of advance notice.

Too often we have seen students nominated as a joke, too often have we seen unqualified candidates elected by an unthinking student body. And just as often have we seen these officers fail completely in their efforts to legislate, to judge, to govern as representatives.

Therefore we urge now that all students look around the campus, think about the eligibility of fellow students and make some tentative decisions about the CGA officers for next year.

We ask now that there be no elections based on "anti" sentiment. Regardless of personal likes and dislikes and hearsay evidence on qualifications, voters in this election should think of the problems facing any of the officers elected, should make an honest effort to elect the candidate most eligible for the office, the candidate most likely to act as representative of the student body as a whole.

We sincerely hope that in the coming weeks we shall see evidenced interest in the elections. We hope to see political parties and slates, honest-to-goodness campaigning. We hope that each candidate will be forced by the voters to present a platform upon which she can be elected or defeated.

We feel that the best way to have such an election is for all students to begin now to give some thought to the election. Time and effort will come later. Let's have no more officers with aspiration for power, and most important, no more figureheads.

The Colonnade

Published weekly during school year except during holidays and examination periods by the students of the Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Georgia. Subscription price $1.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1928, at the post office, Milledgeville, Georgia, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Editor: Panke Knox, Business Mgr. — Carolyn Stringer, Managing Editor, Mildred Ballard Exchange Editor — Mary Fiveash, Associate Editor, Clarence Alford, Circulation Mgrs. — Darius Ellis, News Editor — Paula Bretz, Ruth Stephenson.

THESE PEOPLE MAKE NEWS

By BLANCHE LAYTON

Nineteen forty-one entered with a bang and with the new year came thousands of resolutions, which with a lot of willpower, will be kept for a short while at any rate. I scammed over the campus this week to find out some of the resolutions made then and there.

Winifred Noble probably won't need much determination to keep hers.

Her main resolution was to enjoy herself at school this quarter. This quarter is the last one here. Then too, I'm going to worry over the war situation this year.

Beth Williams said she did not make any resolutions because she, like everybody else, never keeps them. However I think Beth has resolved to keep busy this quarter because she's the hardest person on the campus to find.

Virginia Collar (imagine it didn't resolve to vote more than once) said she intends, abiding by her resolution, to make every class and meeting time this year.

ASCAP hasn't beaten anybody into line yet but they don't have Stephen Foster on their side. And what's a Jerome Kern tune when there's Tschaiowsky's "None but the Lonely Heart" crooned at you by James Melton and a few minutes later by Kenny Baker. And another thing that gives ASCAP a disadvantage is the recent fad for rhumba rhythms. I didn't feel that ASCAP had hurt the calibre of Xavier Cugat's program Thursday night. Why? Because he can make rhythm wiggle down your spine with an old favorite like "Estrelita" or "Burfdia" (not responsible for the spelling that's wrong, see my copy reader, poor girl.)

Gayle Rankin remarked, "I haven't really listed my resolutions, but one of the things I would like to do is to spend more time studying and less time looking forward to going home, or listening to the radio, or just plain loafing. The next problem now is getting up in the morning. I now resolve to get up when the alarm clock goes off and cease this business of lying in bed until the last minute. Here's hoping I can keep it."

The above resolutions are good but have all you readers made some just as good???

Scholarship average of University of California sororities and women's house clubs at Berkeley is highest in 15 years.

Union college's library prizes a letter from John Blair, its first president, written in 1798 to a colleague in Virginia.

Plans for a $250,000 college of religion building have been approved at Butler college.

Three sons of law graduates registered this year in the law school of Creighton university.

Abdul K. Mehta, champion cyclist of India, has organized a cycling club for students at Texas university.

CAMPUS CAMERA

QUIPS AND QUIBBLES

By Carolyn Stringer

HAVE ANY HATS BEEN TAKEN OFF TO ASCAP?

Typical crack heard on the radio nowadays is "Frank, will you sing something for the audience?" Answer: "No, I ain't singin' in nuthin' til my lawyer gets here."

ASCAP hasn't beaten anybody into line yet but they don't have Stephen Foster on their side. And what's a Jerome Kern tune when there's Tschaiowsky's "None but the Lonely Heart" crooned at you by James Melton and a few minutes later by Kenny Baker. And another thing that gives ASCAP a disadvantage is the recent fad for rhumba rhythms. I didn't feel that ASCAP had hurt the calibre of Xavier Cugat's program Thursday night. Why? Because he can make rhythm wiggle down your spine with an old favorite like "Estrelita" or "Burfdia" (not responsible for the spelling that's wrong, see my copy reader, poor girl.)

Gayle Rankin remarked, "I haven't really listed my resolutions, but one of the things I would like to do is to spend more time studying and less time looking forward to going home, or listening to the radio, or just plain loafing. The next problem now is getting up in the morning. I now resolve to get up when the alarm clock goes off and cease this business of lying in bed until the last minute. Here's hoping I can keep it."

The above resolutions are good but have all you readers made some just as good???

Scholarship average of University of California sororities and women's house clubs at Berkeley is highest in 15 years.

Union college's library prizes a letter from John Blair, its first president, written in 1798 to a colleague in Virginia.

Plans for a $250,000 college of religion building have been approved at Butler college.

Three sons of law graduates registered this year in the law school of Creighton university.

Abdul K. Mehta, champion cyclist of India, has organized a cycling club for students at Texas university.

On THE RECORD AND I DO MEAN THE RECORD

I nearly put the typewriter away and my first column since the Christmas season nearly went to the basket without asking. "What did Santa Claus bring you?" and saying "Happy New Year". Just to even things up for my dilatory wishes and my near neglect of the dear readers I want to add that I wish you all a very, very happy Easter and a most prosperous Spring.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Gracious, Heavens Above, etc!

I speaking of music and forgetting ASCAP for the moment (if possible) I here and now request that if any of my readers gets her (or his) news on a record called "Stardust" of the twelve inch Victor variety sung by Frank Sinatra and the Pied Pipers with Ted Dorsey backing on one side and sung at you by Artie Shaw from the

Saturday, January 11, 1941

THE COLONNADE

Page Three

Fear, Not Inexperience Is Basis of Stage Fright

BY JANICE OXFORD

Stage Fright and What to Do About It; Dwight E. Watkins and Harrison M. Karr, January, Good Housekeeping

Doubtless you've had attacks of stage fright. You know the symptoms—the heart pounding, shortness of breath, the trembling, undependable voice.

Most people think this is due to inexperience. Certainly nine out of ten of you are hopeful enough to think that.

This article, I'm afraid, explodes your theory, and what's more, makes it undesirable. Washington, in his first inaugural speech, was a model of stage fright. He had such a shaking voice he could scarcely be understood. Perhaps he never entirely overcame it. According to these authors, he shouldn't have overcome it.

Why have stage fright? The basic of it is fear. You perceive an emergency and doubt your ability to meet it. It is far too important to you; minimize it, make it smaller and less important. Tomorrow you will have forgotten you had to make a talk, and probably your audience will.

Vanity may not be a recognized virtue, but in some of its milder phases it possesses the power of giving self-confidence. Feeling that she is well-groomed, her posture is good, and that she has grace of movement naturally gives a woman a sense of superiority. After all, self-confidence is spiced with that. So much for the appearance element of curing stage fright!

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Perhaps you never realized that Stage fright is really of value. Ernest Brumley says, "You see, it is the artist in us that makes us that way." Some of us must be geniuses. Lockwood and Thorpe in

Memory in public speaking is developed by repetition. The audience may be critical but they are easily fooled.

Duke Succeeds Davis as Honor Board Head; Plans Made for Honor Week Jan. 13-17

Students Rights Flouted In Michigan Rejection

By JOE BELDEN, Editor

Student Opinion Surveys of America

AUSTIN, Texas, January 11—Active supporters of academic freedom and student rights were recently shaken when the University of Michigan with one-sentence letters refused re-admittance to thirteen young men and women "because they were considered disturbing influences."

University officials have declared the action was not taken because of the students' political ideas or preservation of academic freedom activities, but the Michigan Committee for Academic Freedom and the barred students themselves believed they have shown this was the basic reason.

Only one student in twenty, however, approves of control of undergraduate, the poll shows. And this opinion is prevalent from coast to coast in about the same proportions. "Our educational centers have always been the seats of freedom, and if we start censoring political views on the campus we are destroying fundamentals of democracy," said a senior in a far Western university. In that group of states the largest opposition (97 percent) was discovered. Another undergraduate stated, "Students and faculty should be allowed to debate social and political matters on the campus if we want to keep democracy here. Remember what the Nazi did in Germany; the universities there were among the first institutions, along with the newspapers, that were gagged."

The largest group believing college administration has the right to control such activities was 8 percent, in the West Central States.

Co-ed registration at Eastern New Mexico college increased 12 percent this year.

Scholarships valued at $450 and $500 were recently awarded 11 Kent State University, when he declared, "Teaching should protect democracy, but in periods of stress a $20,000 steel storage building is of paramount importance that is now being used by Iowa State college for books seldom used or kept for exchange purposes.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

United States Naval Academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World War days.

Serving Woman Is Center Of Wertel's Newest Novel

BY MILDRED BALLARD

Against a backdrop shifting from summer retreat in the Austrian Alps, to hideaway in Prague, to the beauty and solemnity of Vatican innerchambers, Franz Werfel projects his strangely moving story of Teta—crafty serving-woman whose "forget-me-not blue eyes had in them an alert, stubborn expression often mingled with distrust."

Werfel could not bring himself to put into print the bitter fate that befell his friends with the collapse of Austrian culture and so it was that he chose the peasant woman whose existence skirted most closely the margin of the lives of those friends. And although the Argans dominate in the beginning of the story, yet as the action unfolds, their influence slips away to let Teta Linko who steps out to carry the weight of the novel.

Intensely religious, methodical in her attempts to work out her own salvation, and deliberately uncommunicative, this bundle of contradiction charts her course without benefit of philosophy.

Her burning desire to make of an unprincipled nephew a consecrated priest sustains her throughout hour after hour of disappointment. And though the project drains her personal resources, she feels that any sacrifice has been richly repaid—until her particular world begins to crumble around her feet.

Werfel calls his book EMBEZZLED HEAVEN, a title that stirs the imagination as does his powerful character study. Past master in the art of writing, he chalks up another success and add to our list of unforgettable characters the name of Teta Linko.

For The Last Time Who Is Yehudi?

IT CAN HAPPEN HERE, observes the Daily Cardinal at the University of Wisconsin in relating the following incident:

You are in a political science lecture. The lecturer is talking about the reprimanding 1920 Republican presidential convention in Chicago, after which the Congress hotel found itself some 50 grand in the hole.

There were courts to handle cases like this—lawyers would be seen—the Congress would sue! Would sue the Republican party for damages!

But you can't sue a whole mess of baby-kissers scattered all over this fair land. You can't stop Republicans on the street and assess damages. You can't serve papers them a proportional share of the on a real elephant, much less a symbolic one.

"What are you gonna do? Whom can you sue?" the lecturer thundered.

From the silent depths the answer breaks forth: "Yehudi."

Iowa State college's 23 buildings are spread over 127 acres.

Dr. M. Pinson Neal, chairman of the department of pathology at the University of Missouri, recently won the 1940 distinguished service medal of the Mississippi Valley Medical society.

Cello, Piano Recital Scheduled For Wed. Appreciation Hour

BY MILDRED BALLARD

Dr. Raleigh M. Drake, violin-cellist and professor of psychology at Wesleyan College, will give a program at the Music Appreciation Hour Wednesday, Jan. 15, in Russell auditorium. The performance will begin at 7:15 p.m. Accompanying him at the piano will be his wife, Irene Greenleaf Drake.

Having studied 'cello with Hans Hess in Chicago and Alwin Schroeder, Dr. Drake traveled two years on chautauqua and has since played with several ensemble groups. He has made occasional solo appearances. The 'cello that he uses, a very old Italian instrument with a rich tone, is one of the very few that was originally undersigned and later enlarged by the skillful workmanship of one of the early craftsmen.

Intensely religious, methodical in her attempts to work out her own salvation, and deliberately uncommunicative, this bundle of contradiction charts her course without benefit of philosophy.

Her burning desire to make of an unprincipled nephew a consecrated priest sustains her throughout hour after hour of disappointment. And though the project drains her personal resources, she feels that any sacrifice has been richly repaid—until her particular world begins to crumble around her feet.

Werfel calls his book EMBEZZLED HEAVEN, a title that stirs the imagination as does his powerful character study. Past master in the art of writing, he chalks up another success and add to our list of unforgettable characters the name of Teta Linko.

Students Say Defense Work Evades War

By JOE BELDEN, Editor
Student Opinion Surveys of America

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 11.—Although still more optimistic about the United States staying out of war than the general public is, American college students have lost some confidence during the last twelve months that we can avoid the conflict.

This is the tenor of national campus opinion today expressed through the cross-sectional samplings of Student Opinion Surveys of America.

The defense expansion program that this country is now witnessing will be a factor in helping to keep us out of the European conflagration, two out of every three collegians believe. Asked by Surveys' interviewers whether they "felt the enlargement of our army and navy will help to keep us out of war or draw us closer to war," these were the answers given in percentages:

Will help to keep us out 67 percent.

Will draw us closer 33 percent.

Exactly one year ago, in December 1939, Student Opinion Surveys sampled the college world with this question: "Do you believe that the United States can stay out of the present war?" That was shortly after the German invasion of Poland and the beginning of general hostilities. The question has been repeated, and this is the comparison:

Believed we can stay out, December 1939 68 percent.

Believed we can stay out, December 1940 63 percent.

Will draw us closer 33 percent.

Exactly one year ago, in December 1939, Student Opinion Surveys sampled the college world with this question: "Do you believe that the United States can stay out of the present war?" That was shortly after the German invasion of Poland and the beginning of general hostilities. The question has been repeated, and this is the comparison:

Believed we can stay out, December 1939 68 percent.

Believed we can stay out, December 1940 63 percent.

Cross-tabulations show that opinion among college men and among co-eds is identical.

Among donors of $25,000 to Long Island College of Medicine recently was "a little girl" who gave $1 for "general purposes."

Last year 1500 people were killed from slipping on soap in their bath tubs; 100 were killed by turning off lights from their bath tubs; 205 were killed falling in and out of tubs.

Moral: Don't take a bath.

A hint to the wise—Tell me not in mournful numbers.

Freshman life is just a dream!

For the rat will flunk that slumber.

Exams are harder than they seem.

The University of Georgia is adding a course in Portuguese.

Physics Prof: "What happens when a body is immersed in water?"

Student: "The telephone rings."

Columbia university has completed its new $75,000 theatre, known as Brander Mathews hall, Teachers college.

DR RALEIGH M. DRAKE
CellistIRENE GREENLEAF
Pianist

Collegiate Review

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

New York university has received a $50,000 gift from Bernard Baruch for establishment of a professorship in therapeutics.

Girls of Bowling Green (Ohio) State university pay 16 cents for a full dinner, boys pay 19 cents.

Northwestern university's first five football teams were coached by their captains and the first salaried Wildcat coach was a player.

University of Cincinnati recently received gifts totaling more than $43,000.

Architecture department at the University of Nebraska is replacing the standard German color chart with one using American pigments.

Iowa State Teachers college campanile, which each morning bongs out a musical greeting to 8 o'clock class-goers, is made up of 21,625 pounds of copper and tin.

Among donors of $25,000 to Long Island College of Medicine recently was "a little girl" who gave $1 for "general purposes."

Singers from 15 states and two foreign countries make up the 118-voice chapel choir at Carleton college.

Vassar college is completing a topographical map of the world, covering a wall space 16 by 48 feet.

Two University of Alabama co-eds who now are roommates and sorority sisters traveled more than 6,000 miles on the same boat last summer without knowing each other.

The University of Georgia is adding a course in Portuguese.

Rese Robrahn, blind student, is taking pre-law courses at Emporia, Kans., Teachers college.

Dance Makes Sophs Work For Glamor

BY DOT R. SMITH

Well, tonight is the night—yes, what they have all been waiting for—the Sophomore dance. For weeks the sophs have been leaving off sweets in order to clear up their complexions as well as, perhaps, loose a little weight. They have also saved their pocketbooks for a date with the hair-dresser so as to look a little more like Lamarr or Crawford. All these are minor details, however, compared to all the preparations to be taken Saturday night. All these preparations begin to take place about 6 o'clock—of course supper is omitted. First of all there is the dress to be ironed very carefully which takes a full half an hour. This is followed by a nice, warm, bath filled with sweet-smelling bath salts. The next hour is spent before the mirror preparing the face with every kind of cream, lotion, etc., imaginable which is of course followed by the make-up. Ah, the next problem is the hair. "Darn that hair-dresser, why did I let her twist my hair up so crazily, I can't do a thing with it?" But after some unsuccessful efforts the inevitable is accomplished. Now, the slipping on of the dress is a very tedious job—it must be done easily so as not to mess up the hair, the make-up, or the dress itself.

With a few struggles and groans, however, this task is also accomplished. "Dear me, can it be that late already? You say my date's here—oh heaven, I must fly." And fly she does, after grabbing her evening wrap and bag, to perhaps one of the grandest times she has ever had. Before the evening is over she receives the reward for all the preparations she has made.

If you say to yourself, "This disturbance I feel is not stage fright; it is merely the wholesome anticipatory solicitude," perhaps you may feel easier. What I have quoted is simple, so simple. Now try it—stage fright is still an uncomfortable feeling.

Four hundred University of Michigan students are housed in the university's new east quadrangle of residence halls.

Saturday, January 11, 1941

N.S.F.A. Aids, Advises In College Gov't Activities

BY BETTY PARK

Do you know what the N. S. F. A. is? Do you know why there is an N. S. F. A.? The N. S. F. A. is the National Student Federation of America. It is the most represented organization of its kind in the United States. It was formed to help make as near perfect as possible College Student Government in America. Your GSCW was represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty-five colleges

represented in the 16th annual Congress by the President of our student government, Frances Lott.

It met in New Brunswick, New Jersey, December 27-31, 1940.

One hundred and twenty

Post Office—

(Continued from page 1)

are exchanging choice phrases, revealing how they fared with the boy friend's fancy since the last time.

Denied the word they wanted most, some linger, but a larger number leave, snapping, "I might have known it!" A smaller group, certain the boy can be counted on that day, wait until the last piece is put up. As one patient and trusting girl reasoned, "somebody has to be the last one." Only last Sunday one girl who had such faith in the boy she kissed goodbye did this and went away empty-handed. Unconvinced, she insisted, "The mail just went wrong." But it did not, for when she returned to the dormitory it was there, special delivery.

Freak addresses are common, with the most frequent variance being the use of nicknames. Mrs. Morgan and her assistant are prepared for puzzlers, however, and rarely is one so wacky it cannot be delivered. Three girls received on letters recently addressed to "Emily, Rubye and Myrtice". A wooden "card" with "Juanita Pitts" chisled on it, created quite a stir. She's a sophomore from Cordele. Before Christmas, one girl promptly received a letter addressed to "Chairman, Apple Peeling Committee" of a dormitory. Pictures often are drawn to supplement the address.

About one-fourth of the students subscribe to a magazine, McCall's, Cosmopolitan and Ladies' Home Journal being favorites. A slightly higher percentage take a state daily newspaper, and many get the county weekly to learn what their neighbors have been doing.

The college girl's box from home is world famous, and the GSCW girls gets her share for an average of a hundred girl's eyes gleam brighter when the parcel post list is published on the bulletin board.

TOYS and COMPLETE LINE OF CANDIES
Rose's 5-10c Store

After Inventory
SALE
Reduced

All Ladies Ready to Wear
DRESSES 1-2 PRICE
COATS 1-3 OFF

SHOES 100 PAIRS
Ladies Shoes Closing out
$2.45

Formerly $5 and $6

If You Want the Best
Shop at

E. E. BELL CO.

Sophomore Dance—

(Continued from page 1)

Upshaw—Jordan Callaway, Bettie Jordan—Paul Swann, Willetha Stanley—Riley Holt.

Frances Walker—Von Mimick, Pat Malcom—Joe Kilpatrick, Christine Willingham—Owen Silvey, Anne Stanford—Baldwin King, Anne Bridges—Frank Holmes, Nell Moore—James Culbreth, Norman Durden—John Rush, Nell Cleckley—Herbie Templeton, Burford Henderson—Howard Donovan, Mary Ida Brown—James Holman, Doris Fowler—John Garrett, Martha Crisett—Sonny Von Weller, Frances Jordan—Johnny Lewis, Mary Griffin—Bill Alexander, Faye Hubbard—Herbert Sanders, Emily Brown—Doyal Harper, Cora Hays—Herbert Dennis, Alice Stringer—Henry Parham, Margie Keith—Byron Curtis, Virginia Parker—T. O. Calloway.

Geneva Irvin—Weyman Roogs, Nell Nelson—Johnny Atkins, Elizabeth Nelson—Henry Tumlin, Grier Allen—Bob McKibben, Sibil Lindsey—Sonny Butts, Anne Rawlings—Jimmy Burnham, Louise King—Tarver Smith, Marie Hargrove—Lamar Ham, Mary Frances Lewis—Jim Pilcher, Helen Whiddon—Fred Peterson, "Happy" McElroy—Jim Simpson, Frances Jordan—Clifford Collins, Mary Arva Johnston—Sam Hunter, Charlotte Tribble—Charles Wannamaker, Frances Simpson—Ralph Marchman, Helen Smith—Charles Strickland, Gayle Rankin—Jack Royal, Mary Ellen Beach—T. F. Earley, "Wootie" Newton—Milton St. John, Joyce McCowan—Peter Walker, Barbara Montgomery—George Reid, Johngeline Morris—Lloyd Braden, Katherine Mason—Alton Jenkins, Mary Ruth Foshee—Edwin Foshee, Juliette Snellings—John Smith, Marney McGibbony—Tom Mitchell, Celeste Rowland—Edwin Vickers, Frances Dupree—Johnnie Basemore.

Isabel Kitchens—Henry Wheeler, Jo McMillan—Billy Cobb, Mildred Kidd—Johnny Matthews, June Ragsdale—John Ragdale, Hilda Nipper—Walker Sammons, Janice Leavey—Ed Johnson, Mary Fiveash—Bob Seay, Virginia Harrell—Jack Walls, Rebecca Horne—Charles Berry, Sue Thompson—J. A. Smith, Ernestine Wansley—W. L. Nix, Jr., Yvonne Wimberly—Bill Shirley, Clara Nell Smith—Bill Forehand, Mary Ellen Mullins—Wilton Gabriel, Myrtle Harris—J. D. Haines, Mabel Brown—Joe Richardson, Louise Faver—Mickey Murphy, Aileen Almos—Freddie Hudson, Bettye Dunaway—Fred Crandall.

Mary Nell Brannen—Haygood Morrison, Elise Simmons—Herman Odom, Beckie Mulligan—James

FOR THE BEST
CLEANING
Try
SNOW'S
LAUNDRY

Collins, Sara Caldwell—Bill Auchiquey, Marjorie Stowers—George Gaines, Jean Vann—Cecil White, Martha Burns—Newman Lozier, Louise Smith—Glynn Harrington, Annie Kate Sanders—Johnnie Cheek, Jessie Perry Atkinson—"Teener" Wheeler, "Charlie" Roberts—Lamar McClain, Carolyn Pennington—Tony Comstock.

Soph—

(Continued from page 1)

wood Eaton, Rhudene Hardigree, Dorothy Claire Hudson, Mary Johnson, Margaret Lambert, Evelyn Leftwich, Melba McCurry, Catherine Miller, Winifred Noble, Mrs. L. C. Norton, Helen Slaton, Henrietta Tennille, and Maxine Tucker.

The skyscraper building of Mundelein college, Chicago, has three elevators, 873 windows, and 1,468 steps, 570 more than the Washington monument.

N. S. F. A. Aids

(Continued from page 5)

er different arrangement—Seniors are only advisors and Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, do all the actual work.

(4) Election. Some colleges in the U. S. elect officers by the merit system. That is, all candidates must take, and make, a certain grade on a test of that college's rules and regulations.

And how is the N. S. F. A. run?

It is run by an executive Board. This board consists of one president, two vice-presidents, three representative from each region, (the U. S. is divided up into 8 regions—we are in the South East Region).

The president is elected each year. He or she is a graduate, goes into office the fall following his graduation, is paid a regular salary, and has an office in Washington, D. C. This office is for the convenience of college governments through out the year. When ever information concerning any problem of college government is needed, this office may be written and depended upon for help and service.

The N. S. F. A. Convention helps in another way, also—the more contacts that we, GSCW make with other colleges, the more prestige we gain and the better known we are.

A NEW STOCK OF STATIONERY EXPECTED
TODAY.

WOOTTON'S BOOK STORE

It happens everywhere—
Chesterfields
give smokers what they want

It's the cooler better-tasting...milder cigarette

MARY JANE YEO
and
JO ANN DEAN
of New York's Skating Hit
"It Happens on Ice"
at the Rockefeller Center Theatre

You try them and find them COOL and PLEASANT. You light one and find they really TASTE BETTER. You buy pack after pack and find they are MILD.

Do you smoke the cigarette that Satisfies
... it's the smoker's cigarette

Copyright 1941, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.